Power Management Company Addresses Growing Demand for Energy Consulting in the Northeast with Addition of Jon Tyler as Executive Sales Manager

[Victor, NY - May 31st, 2023] - Power Management, a leading provider of comprehensive energy management solutions headquartered in Victor, NY, is proud to announce the appointment of Rhode Island native Jon Tyler as Executive Sales Manager. Tyler's hire is part of Power Management's response to the increasing demand for energy consulting services across the Northeast region.

"Over our 25+ year history, the demand for knowledgeable, experienced, energy management professionals has grown exponentially," said Mike Hedges, Vice President of Sales for Power Management Company. "From manufacturing to tourism and hospitality, every industry is facing energy-related challenges, and they want access to industry professionals like Jon who can help navigate a complex energy marketplace."

Tyler's role as Executive Sales Manager will focus on working closely with manufacturers, commercial real estate owners, and organizations across industries to develop personalized energy management strategies. This includes comprehensive solutions such as energy procurement, energy risk management, energy efficiency upgrades, and sustainable energy initiatives.

"From sustainability to cost, there are some truly unique and important energy decisions that organizations have to make," said Tyler, adding, "I'm excited to join the Power Management team, because they are not only knowledgeable about the solutions organizations need, they have their finger on the pulse of the energy industry, and are preparing for the future."

Tyler will join the Power Management offices in Boston, Massachusetts and will focus his efforts on Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and the New England region. With his extensive experience in the energy procurement and consulting industry, having been a sole proprietor for an energy supplier, Tyler brings valuable expertise to Power Management.
